

The BBC logo is centered at the top of the poster. The background is a deep red with silhouettes of birds flying in the sky. Below the title, a dark, jagged, torn-paper-like shape contains the word 'SCRATCHMAN' in white, hand-painted letters. A silhouette of a man in a hat and coat stands in a field of tall grass to the left of a dark, vertical rectangular shape. To the right of this shape, the text 'What are you afraid of?' is written in a small, white, serif font. At the bottom, the name 'TOM BAKER' is written in large, white, serif capital letters.

Synopsis book

What are you afraid of? In his first-ever Doctor Who novel, Tom Baker's incredible imagination is given free rein. A story so epic it was originally intended for the big screen, Scratchman is a gripping, white-knuckle thriller almost forty years in the making. The Doctor, Harry and Sarah Jane Smith arrive at a remote Scottish island, when their holiday is cut short by the appearance of strange creatures hideous scarecrows, who are preying on the local population. The islanders are living in fear, and the Doctor vows to save them all. But it doesn't go to plan the time travellers have fallen into a trap, and Scratchman is coming for them. With the fate of the universe hanging in the balance, the Doctor must battle an ancient force from another dimension, one who claims to be the Devil. Scratchman wants to know what the Doctor is most afraid of. And the Doctor's worst nightmares are coming out to play
