Synopsis book

It all started with a mysterious blue note sewn into a wedding dress. Something blue. I'd gone to sell my own unworn bridal gown at a vintage clothing store. That's when I found another bride's something old. Stitched into the lining of a fabulously feathered design was the loveliest message I'd ever read: Thank you for making all of my dreams come true. The name embossed on the blue stationery: Reed Eastwood, obviously the most romantic man who ever lived. I also discovered he's the most gorgeous. If only my true-love fantasies had stopped there. Because I've since found out something else about Mr. Starry-Eyed. He's arrogant, cynical, and demanding. I should know. Thanks to a twist of fate, he's my new boss. But that's not going to stop me from discovering the story behind his last love letter. A love letter that did not result in a happily ever after. But that story is nothing compared to the one unfolding between us. It's getting hotter, sweeter, and more surprising than
