Synopsis book

Half-human, half-vampire Dorina Basarab is back and facing her biggest challenge yet in the next urban fantasy in the New York Times bestselling series. Dorina Basarab is a dhampir half-human, half-vampire. As one of the Vampire Senates newest members, Dory already has a lot on her plate. But then a relative of one of Dorys fey friends goes missing. They fear hes been sold to a slaver who arranges fights sometimes to the death between different types of fey. As Dory investigates, she and her friends learn the slavers are into something much bigger than a fight club. With the Vampire Senate gearing up for war with Faerie, itll take everything she has to defeat the slavers and deal with the entirely too attractive master vampire Louis-Cesare....

Shadow's Bane (Dorina Basarab, #4) by Karen Chance

The book cover features a young woman with dark hair, wearing a black leather jacket and dark pants, crouching on a ledge. She is holding a small, glowing object in her right hand. The background is a dark, atmospheric cityscape at night, with a tall, dark building (resembling the Empire State Building) visible on the left. The title 'Shadow's Bone' is written in a large, white, cursive font across the bottom half of the cover. Above the title, the author's name 'KAREN CHANCE' is written in large, white, block letters. At the top, there is a quote from the New York Times and a quote from SFRevu. At the bottom left, it says 'A Midnight's Daughter Novel'.
