Synopsis book

A campout is a concentrated delight: sitting around the fire, surrounded by friends, toasting marshmallows, with the open sky and twinkling stars overhead. Whats not to like about camping? To ensure that the food lives up to the surroundings, The Campout offers 75 ingenious recipes for camp food, along with advice and tips to take your outdoor eats to the next level. It may be the oldest trick known to man, but The Campout makes cooking over the fire feel fresh and exciting. From bug juice and beans to banana boats, tinfoil dinners, pudgie pies, gorp, and the almighty smoreits all here, with updates for todays fresh ingredients and way of eating. With recipes that can be made campside, and others that can be made entirely at home and transported to the campout, each dish includes a backpack checklist so nothing is forgotten. The Campout captures all the humor, heart, and nostalgia of making a delicious meal in the great outdoors.
