

The book cover features a dramatic scene with two characters. In the foreground, a man with blue skin and red eyes, identified as Thrawn, is shown from the chest up. He is wearing a white Imperial officer's uniform with a rank insignia of six blue squares and four red squares. He has a serious, intense expression. In the background, the iconic black helmet and mask of Darth Vader are visible, looking towards the viewer. The lighting is moody, with a bright light source from the left creating highlights on Thrawn's face and uniform. The overall color palette is dominated by the blues of Thrawn's skin, the whites of his uniform, and the blacks of Vader's armor.

Synopsis book

"I have sensed a disturbance in the Force." Ominous words under any circumstances, but all the more so when uttered by Emperor Palpatine. On Batuu, at the edges of the Unknown Regions, a threat to the Empire is taking root its existence little more than a glimmer, its consequences as yet unknowable. But it is troubling enough to the Imperial leader to warrant investigation by his most powerful agents: ruthless enforcer Lord Darth Vader and brilliant strategist Grand Admiral Thrawn. Fierce rivals for the emperor's favor, and outspoken adversaries on Imperial affairs including the Death Star project the formidable pair seem unlikely partners for such a crucial mission. But the Emperor knows it's not the first time Vader and Thrawn have joined forces. And there's more behind his royal command than either man suspects. In what seems like a lifetime ago, General Anakin Skywalker of the Galactic Republic, and Commander Mitth'raw'nuruodo, officer of the Chiss Ascendancy, crossed paths for the
